

The LiveWyer guide to EAST LONDON

Key areas:

- Hackney
- Shoreditch
- Canary Wharf
- Stratford

Known for:

- Brick Lane curry
- Shoreditch nightlife
- Street art scene
- Olympic Park

FOOD

- Historic 24-hour Beigel Bake on Brick Lane, serving salt beef and smoked salmon bagels. And curry houses line the street if you still have room afterwards.

<https://beigelbake.co.uk/>

- St. John Restaurant (near Smithfield & Spitalfields Markets) is beloved by chefs and frequently heralded as one of the best restaurants in London.

<https://stjohnrestaurant.com/>

- Sourdough, pastries, cakes and more can be found at Popham's Bakery – with a couple of locations in and around the Hackney area.

<https://www.pophamsbakery.com/>

- Get your quintessential Full English Breakfast at the iconic art deco cafe E Pellicci.

<http://epellicci.co.uk/>

- If you're in Dalston check out Turkish restaurants Mangal 1 and Mangal 2.

- Pakistani curries and kebabs at Lahore Kebab House in Whitechapel.

<http://www.lahore-kebabhouse.com/>

DRINK

- Happiness Forgets is a trendy basement speakeasy with excellent mixologist-mixed cocktails.

<http://www.happinessforgets.com/>

- FWD:Coffee have a couple of locations around Shoreditch and can be relied on for your coffee fix.

<https://fwdcoffee.co.uk/>

- Or for a great coffee in a more striking locale visit The Wren.

<http://www.thewrencoffee.com/>

- Stop for a riverside pint at the Prospect of Whitby, one of the oldest pubs in London.

Broadway Market for food and coffee.

<https://columbiaroad.info/>

- Meanwhile Brick Lane and Spitalfields Market have plenty of options for vintage shopping and street food.

SPORT

- The Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park has the London Stadium and 2012 Olympic venues, not to mention the Abba Arena.

queenelizabetholympicpark.co.uk

CULTURE

- Go for a walk around the Barbican Centre, there's usually exhibitions on and a great gift shop but the complex itself is the real star.

www.barbican.org.uk

LIVELYER

Expertise where it matters.

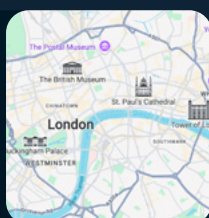

LinkedIn

Bluesky

livewyer.io

Download a Google Map with our picks for the whole city!