

The LiveWyer guide to NORTH LONDON

Key areas:

- Camden
- Islington
- Finsbury Park

Known for:

- Camden Market
- Emirates Stadium
- Hampstead Heath
- Jewish heritage
- Highgate Cemetery

FOOD

- Highly-rated burgers from Black Bear Burger with locations in Clerkenwell, Camden & Shoreditch.
<http://www.blackbearburger.co.uk/>
- Get your authentic Mexican tacos from Proper Tacos in Finsbury Park.
- Miel Bakery is a classic French bakery which serves up seasonal pastries alongside espresso drinks and teas.
<http://mielbakery.co.uk/>
- Charming and authentic Italian cafe/deli Italia Uno is a great little stop near to the BT Tower.

DRINK

- Go for a Great British pint at The Jackalope in Marylebone.
<https://www.jackalopelondon.com/>
- Described by Google as a “serious beer drinkers’ pub”, but we’re sure The Earl of Essex will be welcoming to unserious beer drinkers too.
<https://www.earlofessex.net/>
- In Finsbury Park check out The Faltering Fullback – big beer garden (the outside area of a pub) and good for watching live sports.
<http://falteringfullback.com/>

ENTERTAINMENT

- Have a walk around sprawling Hampstead Heath. It might not be warm enough for a dip in the lidos, but there’s plenty to see including views of the city in the distance.
- The renovated 19th-century warehouses at Coal Drops Yard are now filled with an array of boutiques, restaurants and cafes.
<http://www.coaldropsyard.com/>
- Or head over to Camden Market for the eclectic range of street food and fashion offerings.
<https://www.camdenmarket.com/>

SPORT

- The home of once great soccer club

Arsenal is the Emirates Stadium. You might not be able to get a ticket but the atmosphere in the area is still great on matchdays. As far as we can tell, this is the only big football club based in North London.

<https://www.arsenal.com/>

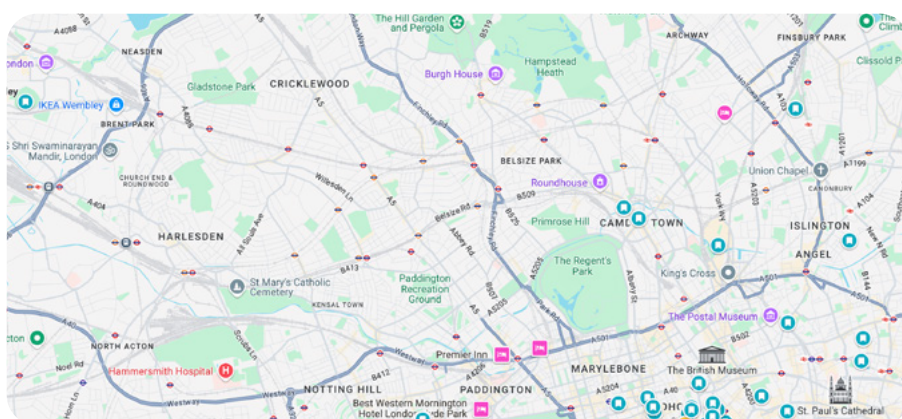

- You can also visit Wembley Stadium, the England national stadium and home of one (1) World Cup and 50+ years of hurt.

<https://www.wembleystadium.com/>

CULTURE

- Did you know that The British Library has a copy of every book ever published, on more than 400 miles of shelves.

<https://www.bl.uk/>

LIVELYER

Expertise where it matters.

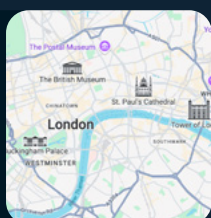

LinkedIn

Bluesky

livelyer.io

Download a Google Map with our picks for the whole city!