

The LiveWyer guide to WEST LONDON

Key areas:

- Westminster
- Victoria
- Kensington

Known for:

- West End musicals
- Buckingham Palace
- Luxury shopping
- Notting Hill
- Richmond Park

FOOD

- Afternoon tea is as much about impeccably presented cakes and sandwiches as it is about tea, and The Wolesley in Mayfair do it as well as anyone.
www.thewolesley.com
- Mercato Mayfair is a stained-glass sanctuary converted into a food market, with an excellent wine cellar.
<http://www.mercatometropolitano.com/>

DRINK

- As the name suggests, The Churchill Arms in Kensington is a traditional British pub filled with Churchill memorabilia and classic ales.
churchillarmskensington.co.uk/
- Guillam Coffee House have a couple of locations, all in West London, and can be trusted with a flat white or a sitdown with a fancy pastry.
<http://www.guillam.co.uk/>
- It's not light on the wallet, but the cocktails at The Connaught Bar are worth the trip.
<https://www.the-connaught.co.uk/>
- Browse the coffee table books or stop for a cocktail at Maison Assouline.
<https://www.maisonassouline.com/>

ENTERTAINMENT

- You could spend an afternoon walking around Hyde Park or stopping for a picnic, at least if the weather is on your side.
<https://www.royalparks.org.uk>
- Head a bit further west and you can find London's Royal Botanic Gardens at Kew.
www.kew.org
- See where the Queen did her grocery shopping – at Fortnum & Mason – or visit the fabled department store Liberty London.

SPORT

- Visit the home of English Rugby at Twickenham (now called Allianz Stadium). There's no matches on but you can take in the history on a tour.

<https://allianzstadiumtwickenham.com/>

- Back to non-league football and we have Hampton & Richmond FC, maybe the closest real team to the one from Ted Lasso.
<http://www.hamrichfc.com/>

CULTURE

- See contemporary design and innovation at the Design Museum off Kensington High St.
<https://designmuseum.org/>
- Take some time to enjoy the Victoria & Albert Museum if you're in the Kensington area.
www.vam.ac.uk

Download a Google Map
with our picks for the whole city!

LIVELYER

Expertise where it matters.

LinkedIn

Bluesky

livewyer.io