

The LiveWyer guide to CENTRAL LONDON

Key areas:

- Soho
- Oxford Street
- Covent Garden
- Trafalgar Square

Known for:

- Big Ben
- Westminster Abbey
- Historic London
- Pubs & Nightlife

FOOD

- Serving as a backdrop in "Layer Cake" and "Rocketman", Regency Cafe is the perfect stop for a Full English.
<https://devonshiresoho.co.uk/>
- The Devonshire in Soho is as good for a filling meal as it is for a filling pint.
<https://www.porterhouse.london/>
- And you can also head to The Porterhouse, a sprawling Irish pub in Covent Garden that's buzzing whenever there's sport on.
<http://www.porterhouse.london/>

DRINK

- Another reliable pub is The Pregnant Man in Holborn, with pints and pies in a casual setting.
<http://thepregnantman.co.uk/>
- Algerian Coffee Stores have been selling coffee at this location for over a century, and are known for espresso and a huge range of beans.
<http://www.algeriancoffeestores.com/>
- Conversely a review described % Arabica as "the Apple Store of coffee shops", so expect modernity.
<https://arabica.coffee/>
- Or grab a coffee at Elwin and you'll be within spitting distance of our office!

- Around since 1890, stop by Gordon's Wine Bar and take in the ambience.
<http://gordonswinebar.com/>
- Indian-inspired cocktails at SOMA come highly recommended.
<https://somasoho.com/>
- Soho jazz bar Ronnie Scott's has seen a host of famous names over the years. Open til late.
<http://www.ronniescotts.co.uk/>
- Or just round the corner you can head to Garlic & Shots to experience death metal with 101 flavours of vodka.
<http://www.garlicandshots.com/>

ENTERTAINMENT

- For something alternative you can see a collection of satirical arcade machines at Novelty Automation.

<http://novelty-automation.com/>

- Discover the history of surgery and medicine at the Hunterian Museum, the hidden museum of the Royal College of Surgeons.
<https://hunterianmuseum.org/>

CULTURE

- Visit Temple Church, built by the Knights Templar in 1185 and featured in "The Da Vinci Code".
<http://www.templechurch.com/>
- Discover the history of the London Underground and the iconic red buses and black taxis at the London Transport Museum in Covent Garden.
<https://ltmuseum.co.uk/>

LIVELYER

Expertise where it matters.

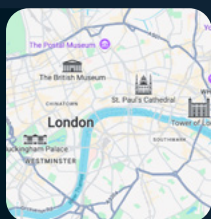

LinkedIn

Bluesky

livewyer.io

Download a Google Map with our picks for the whole city!